

Stakeholder Partnership Lead (Permanent position, working from home, preference for Toronto or Montreal)

MISSION FIRST

Improving the lives of people affected by blood cancers is the responsibility of everyone at The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Canada (LLSC). This mission guides all decision making, regardless of job function. Understanding and addressing the needs of people affected by blood cancers is fundamental to who we are and what we do. We are mission driven:

- dedicated to serving the blood cancer community
- committed to staying abreast of advances in blood cancers knowledge and treatments
- empowered to take ownership of our mission by informing, educating and connecting people to LLSC services

You are...

... flexible, resilient and able to adapt to changing circumstances. You are passionate about rallying people and making a difference for families affected by blood cancer. You are a demonstrated relationship builder and talented in creating win-win opportunities to reinforce partnerships. Compassionate in outlook, you are driven to do work that matters. You are an excellent communicator and have ideas, opinions and expertise on how to engage with partners. You are looking for a deeper level of engagement with the community and partners to make a difference in the community. You yearn for the freedom to work on your own terms and embrace the responsibility that comes with it.

You are looking for a permanent position working from home, preference for Toronto or Montreal. Note: although this is mostly a work-from-home position, the successful candidate will be expected occasionally regional travel as necessary, for team meetings/ training.

We are...

...The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Canada (LLSC) and we are re-writing the non-profit business model. Guided by our core values and belief in the foundational importance of employee engagement and empowerment; we are committed to improving the lives of Canadians affected by blood cancers.

We Believe
Culture is Everything

1. ENGAGED employees are the key to our success
2. Talented, high performing employees are driven by an internal standard of excellence and take a great deal of responsibility for their own success and the success of their organization
3. High-performing employees need freedom to thrive
4. We will never achieve our true potential unless our employees feel supported, valued, and free
5. Freedom begets boldness and we must be BOLD, willing to move forward with knowledge and conviction despite uncertainty, willing to share, try and perhaps fail without fear, willing to take calculated risks and THINK BIG

Our Core Values & What They Mean to Us

Servant Leadership

We put our patients first. Our leadership style is grounded in the sharing of power for the growth and well-being of our people and the blood cancer community.

Lifelong Learning

We see learning as more than professional development, but as a mindset and philosophy to help us constantly adapt, change and excel.

Authenticity

We celebrate character and genuineness. We expect, respect and welcome different opinions, modes of expression and diversity.

Shared Achievement

We believe success is a team sport. We care about results, but more importantly, we care how those results are achieved.

Freedom + Responsibility

We trust our team. We embrace the freedom of employees to work non-traditional hours if needed, to work from home and exercise creativity in career goals and development.

What We Will Do Together

- Build relationships with pharmaceutical industry partners and present our community services value proposition
- Secure restricted funds using a win-win approach to address the needs of Canadians affected by a blood cancer
- Plan, supervise, administer and perform all operational activities pertaining to LLSC's community service partnerships
- Develop and deliver the stewardship plan for each partner and produce impact reports
- Elevate the voices of those experiencing blood cancers amongst stakeholders and partners and act as a LLSC ambassador
- Represent the entire blood cancer community regardless of diagnosis, gender, age or social barriers to health
- Maintain projects tracking system; provide financial report, budget and forecast

You will be successful if you are comfortable

- Leading with our Mission and serving the blood cancer community
- Applying your expertise in relationship building and the not-for-profit industry to advance our support programs and reinforce our community services
- Using your knowledge of the cancer landscape and the healthcare regulatory landscape
- Leading face-to-face and virtual consultations/presentations with diverse stakeholders; writing and presentations
- Managing processes that require perseverance, flexibility and patience to generate results
- Being part of a work in progress and adapting to the change that comes with it
- Working on a team that sets ambitious goals and works together to achieve them, guided by a bold vision
